Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the even though the petitioner is already having a B.D.S. degree, he had not applied, but if the petitioner is allowed to make a representation, then he has no objection.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, it is just and proper in the circumstances to allow the petitioner to make a representation to respondent No.2 today itself, and respondent No.2 shall consider it and decide the same on its own merits. Ordered accordingly.
